SUMMARY

Research: policy-relevant randomized trials of cost-effectiveness and implementation of mental health and substance use interventions for vulnerable populations, including perinatal women and individuals involved in the criminal justice system.

Leadership: participatory governance processes to promote equity, expand impact, empower the unempowered, end structural racism and sexism, and elevate community and patient contributions to solutions.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Undergraduate	B.S., cum laude , Applied Physics Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah 1991 - 1995
Graduate	Ph.D., Clinical Psychology Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah 1999 - 2004
	Psychology Internship Veterans Affairs Palo Alto Health Care System 2003 – 2004
Fellowship	T32 postdoctoral fellow in treatment research Department of Psychiatry and Human Behavior, Brown University, Providence, RI 2004 – 2006
Leadership training	MSU Academic Advancement Network informal leadership fellowship; shadowed the Senior Associate Dean for Research (2-3 days/month for 12 months) 2017 – 2018

PROFESSIONAL LICENSES

Licensed psychologist, RI #PS00925, April 2006 – present
Licensed psychologist, MI #6301016647, April 2016 - present

LEADERSHIP AND ADMINISTRATION:

Founding faculty member, MSU College of Human Medicine's Division of Public Health in Flint, Michigan, Jan 2015 – present. As the founding member and search lead of the MSU's Division of Public Health (which began when I came to an empty building 7 years ago), I set the tone for the Division' pursuit of excellence and commitment to its community-partnered mission. I insisted that we could attract many more R01-level researchers, and then I went out and found them. In the 7 years since I came, we have hired eight more tenure-track faculty (including full professors from the #1 and #4 public health schools in the country), 9 fixed term faculty, 100+ staff members, and we have received more than $91 million in grant funding. When I stepped down as search chair, faculty were 70% female and 46% under-represented minorities.

Chair, Michigan State University Faculty Senate and University Steering Committee, Aug 2020 – Aug 2021. Vice Chair, Aug 2019 – Aug 2020; Steering Committee At Large Member, July 2018 –Aug 2021. I represented 5,722 university faculty and academic staff to the President, Provost, and Board of Trustees on the highest governing board of the university (appointed by university-wide election). Issues addressed included: (1) enacted tracking of diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) metrics and DEI statement requirements for in academic governance; (2) motions advancing DEI at the university generally; (3) reorganized the Office of Academic Governance; (4) created operating procedures to make communication among shared governance, administrators, faculty, and students more efficient and effective; (5) university budget and re-opening in the context of COVID; (6) a clearer, safer, more responsive university climate; (7) promoted faculty voice in a President and a Provost search and in university Strategic Planning; (8) revised university bylaws; (9) made MSU a signatory on #TimesUp Healthcare; (10) organized academic governance processes (created Faculty Senate Orientation, organized tracking and accountability, began email updates to all university faculty; conducted the first annual Academic Governance diversity survey, increased Faculty Senate attendance from 77% to 91%, changed norms to focus on actions/solutions), and (11) addressed >40 other issues in the year I was chair.

President’s Strategic Planning Committee, Michigan State University, Dec 2019 – Sept 2021. The committee determined the university’s vision, values, and strategic direction with input from campus and external stakeholders, including alumni and community leaders. I led the values subcommittee, charged with clarifying university values, and serve on the 6-member President’s Ad Hoc Values Integration Working Group. I was also a member of the resource subcommittee, charged with informing the university’s future resource allocation model, of the Health Pillar goals committee. <https://president.msu.edu/initiatives/strategic-plan/steering-committee.html>

Organizer, convener, and lead (with Dr. Claudia Finkelstein) of Michigan State University College of Human Medicine “CHM and Reaching the Vulnerable” Workgroup, July 2018 – May 2022. This workgroup consists of associate deans and other College leaders. It ensures that the College is meeting its mission to serve the vulnerable. We are working to make the College trauma informed, and have organized a speaker series, small group dialogues around difficult topics, suggestion boxes, and a platform to match sexual assault survivors to opportunities to participate in ongoing university decision-making. We organized COVID support groups and mindfulness pop-ups to assist with wellness (http://humanmedicine.msu.edu/Culture_Of_Safety/Home.htm).

Michigan Governor’s Public Health Advisory Council, December 2017 – November 2020. This Council meets monthly with key advisors to the Governor to help address the state’s public health challenges and promote health in all policies.

Genesee Health System Board of Directors, July 2020 – June 2023. The Board manages the business, property, and affairs of Genesee Health System, Genesee County MI’s community mental health agency and affiliated federally qualified health center.

Henry Ford Health– Michigan State University Partnership Research Committee, March 2021 – present. This committee makes recommendations regarding the strategic plan and areas of focus for clinical and translational research in the new 30-year HFHS-MSU partnership. I serve on the main committee as well as the Research Portfolio and Clinical Research subcommittees.

Michigan State University Sustainable Health Steering Committee, March 2022 – present. This group organizes and oversees implementation of the “sustainable health” pillar of the new university strategic plan.

Research Administration: 2004– present. I have been principal investigator (PI) of 17 NIH studies with a total cost of more than $53 million, demonstrating my ability to set and meet timelines and budgets, and to manage large teams to achieve complex goals. Current projects I lead involve more than 35 faculty, 42 staff members, and $36 million. I am consistently in the top few percent of all investigators nationally in terms of annual NIH grant dollars.

The National Center for Health and Justice Integration for Suicide Prevention (NCHATS)

This national practice-based research center, including academic, health, and justice institutions and over 100 Consortium Partners, will examine effectiveness, cost-effectiveness, and scalability of suicide prevention activities triggered through justice-health big data linkage. The Center: (1) uses contact with the justice system (e.g., police contact, court involvement, arrest) as an indicator of suicide risk in the general population; (2) demonstrates how big data systems that efficiently track publicly available data on justice involvement can be linked to health system records to identify individuals at risk for suicide and connect them to community care; and (3) examines effectiveness and scalability of suicide prevention approaches using these methods.

Administrative Core (Johnson, Ahmedani and Weinstock). This Core oversees: (1) Center strategic planning, (2) scientific leadership and oversight; (3) logistical and administrative support to the Center components, and (4) facilitation of a network of Consortium Partner stakeholders affiliated with the Center.

Methods Core (Johnson). This Core provides national expertise and resources needed to conduct rigorous, reproducible research projects that share similar conceptual frameworks, methods, and measures.

Project 1: Syncing screening and services for suicide prevention across health and justice systems (Ahmedani and Weinstock). In this project, two large health systems (Henry Ford and HealthPartners) identify justice involvement of their patients and act to prevent suicide (n = 61,500).

Project 2: Managed care updates of subscriber justice system involvement for suicide prevention (Arias and Johnson).* In this project, a Medicaid managed care organization (CareSource) identifies justice involvement of its subscribers and acts to prevent suicide (n = 43,000).

Project 3: Using jail populations to validate an established suicide risk algorithm (Kubiak and Ahmedani). In this project, Michigan jails will identify suicide risk at initial detention or community re-entry using Medicaid data and act to prevent suicide (n = 6,000).

Project 4: Improving mental health treatment for individuals in crisis interacting with the criminal justice system (Cook and Barrett). This project evaluates police-emergency department partnership for suicide risk identification and preventive action (n = 1,057).

The ROSE Scale-Up Study (ROSES-II): Informing a decision about ROSE as universal postpartum depression prevention

ROSE is an evidence-based intervention that prevents half of cases of postpartum depression. It was recommended by the US Preventive Services Task Force in 2019. This n=2,320 project assesses effectiveness, cost-outcome, equity, and scalability of using ROSE as universal vs. targeted prevention for postpartum depression. Results will indicate whether all pregnant women or only those at risk for postpartum depression should receive ROSE.

 NIH/NIMHD $3,944,351

Meeting women where they are: The Maternal Health Multilevel Intervention for Racial Equity (MIRACLE) Project

This community-partnered study will scale a community, provider, and system-level implementation intervention to reduce African American maternal morbidity and mortality disparities in two Michigan counties (Genesee and Kent). We will test the intervention using data from all Medicaid insured women who deliver in Michigan from 2016-2019 and 2021-2024 (approximately 540,000 births, including 162,000 births to African American women).

R01 MD016003 – S1 (Meghea and Johnson) 7/1/21 – 6/30/23 (NCE) Role: PI
NIH/NIMHD $219,090

Addressing racial disparities in maternal morbidity and mortality: MIRACLE Admin. Supplement
This project will examine the intersection of racism, residential segregation, social determinants (e.g. disparities in economic hardship, education, access to care), and other risk factors (e.g. intimate partner violence, substance use, mental health, stress) as sources of disparities in maternal morbidity and mortality, using Michigan Medicaid data.

R01 HD100471 (Johnson) 8/1/20-7/31/25 Role: PI

IPT for major depression following perinatal loss

This study tests the efficacy of interpersonal psychotherapy (IPT) for major depression following perinatal loss (early and late fetal death and early neonatal death) in a sample of 274 women in Flint and Detroit, Michigan. The trial will be the first fully-powered randomized trial of treatment for any psychiatric disorder following perinatal loss.

R01 MH118680 (Taxman & Johnson) 9/1/19-8/30/24 Role: PI
NIH/NIMH $3,245,210

Evaluation of Stepping Up efforts to improve mental health services and justice utilization

This project examines implementation mechanisms and outcomes among 455 counties in the Stepping Up initiative and 455 matched counties. Stepping Up is a national initiative administered by the National Association of Counties (NACO), the Council of State Governments (CSG) Justice Center and the American Psychiatric Foundation (APF) to reduce the number of people with serious mental illness in jails.

NIH/NIMH $3,881,409

The ROSE Sustainment (ROSES) Study. Implementing to sustain: Determining the minimum necessary intervention to maintain a postpartum depression prevention program (ROSE) in clinics providing prenatal services to low-income women

This project determines the minimum necessary implementation intervention necessary to sustain ROSE in 90 prenatal clinics serving low-income women nationally. Previous RCTs have found that ROSE prevents half of cases of postpartum depression among low-income women.

R34 MH130934-01 (Yonkers) 9/1/22-6/30/25 Role: Co-I
NIH/NIMH $750,000

Development of a text intervention for perinatal depression

This proposal will: (1) apply User Centered Design (UCD) to collect data from content/area experts, caregivers, and women with lived experience of perinatal depression, to develop an intervention called Text4Moms, and (2) evaluate the acceptability/feasibility of Text4Moms in a pilot trial with at-risk pregnant women.

Maternal health Multilevel Intervention/s for Racial Equity (MIRACLE) Center

This Center will reduce pregnancy-related and pregnancy-associated maternal morbidity and mortality (PRAMM) disparities in African American, Hispanic, and rural populations through innovative and culturally relevant community-partnered effectiveness and implementation research. The Center tests multilevel, community-centered, equity-focused interventions for PRAMM disparities, with an emphasis on scalability and sustainment.

Status: Submitted 12/19/22

Community Partnership Consortium (Key, Sanchez-Lloyd). This Consortium will create an action-oriented, inclusive, broad-based stakeholder group to act as full partners in increasing the relevant and reach of Center activities. Role: Co-I

Project 1: Multilevel community-centered intervention to reduce pregnancy related and associated morbidity and mortality (PRAMM) disparities in non-Hispanic Black and Hispanic Medicaid-insured individuals (Meghea, Slaughter-Acey, Wisdom). This project is the first large-scale test of a home visiting program that integrates community health workers to focus on PRAMM disparities issues, including comorbid conditions. It will address patient-provider interactions from provider and patient perspectives. Role: Co-I

Project 2: High reach, multi-level digital intervention for pregnancy-related and - associated morbidity and mortality (PRAMM) disparities (Ondersma, Margerison, McKay). This project develops and tests the effectiveness of a technology-enabled approach to reducing PRAMM disparities among rural and African American populations. Role: Co-I

Project 3: Scale-up implementation approaches to ending pregnancy-related and - associated morbidity and mortality (PRAMM) disparities (Johnson, Clement). This project will develop and evaluate the effectiveness and cost-effectiveness of a scale-up implementation approach for scaling equity-focused outpatient and community care safety bundles county-wide in 12 Michigan counties with a population of nearly 6 million people. Role: PI

Training program addressing the multilevel factors that affect pregnancy-related and pregnancy-associated morbidity and mortality disparities (Margerison, Meghea, Saddler). The Center will engage and prepare early-stage investigators, especially those from backgrounds or identities currently underrepresented in the health sciences, to conduct research that address the biological, behavioral, environmental, and structural determinants of PRAMM disparities. Role: Co-I

Peer delivered episodic future thinking to improve MOUD treatment engagement among returning citizens.

Prison and jail reentry contexts reinforce tendencies to engage in short-term, reward-seeking behaviors (e.g. substance use, skipping treatment) at a time when decisions have significant consequences. This project will develop and test a single-session adapted version of Episodic Future Thinking, which has been shown to elongate individuals' time horizons and decrease delay discounting, reducing substance misuse and improvements in treatment outcomes.

Status: Funding pending.

Evaluating cost-effective training models for national scale-up of jail-based suicide prevention

With more than 10 million admissions per year and short stays, U.S. jails touch many individuals at risk for suicide and provide an important opportunity for suicide prevention that is currently being missed. To speed national scale up of an evidence-based suicide prevention intervention in jails, this trial will compare three intensities of training to determine which is most efficient in helping jail counselors achieve fidelity and reduce post-release suicide attempts.

Status: Submitted 2/11/20. Impact score of 40 on first submission (no percentile). Awaiting resubmission until COVID is over and jails are more able to handle research again.

SELECTED COMMUNITY EVENTS AND INITIATIVES:

1. Flint Women's Study, Lead and Principal Investigator. The goal of this community-engaged participatory research and advocacy project was to determine the hopes, dreams, needs, strengths, and assets of women in Genesee County (n = 100 qualitative interviews), and then to re-convene study participants and others to create community initiatives to address needs and build on assets together. <https://www.publichealth.msu.edu/flint-research/the-flint-women-s-study>
 - Organizer and convener of the Flint Women's Study Community Action Network (FWSCAN; facebook @flintwomensstudy), which meets monthly to support community initiatives arising from skills, assets, and needs identified in the Flint Women's Study. This network has been set up under community leadership, with ongoing support from MSU as needed.
 - Community impact. Results from the Flint Women's Study were used to create the Women's Empowerment Center at the YWCA of Greater Flint. At the direct suggestion of participants in the Flint Women's study, the Center was created as a place for women to gather, have opportunities to develop self-confidence, and address other issues identified in the study. Results of the Flint Women's Study also led to a county-wide summit on human trafficking ("Myths, Facts, Prevention, and Action") on 9/24/2020, and have informed many other community initiatives, including grantmaking. My team also maintains an up-to-date community resource guide.

- Organizer, Healthy Bodies Start with Healthy Minds: A community conversation about mental health. The goal of this workshop was to give community members an opportunity learn about mental health and mental health care in a non-stigmatizing way. It arose directly from participant suggestions in the Flint Women's Study.
2. National webinar series on improving services for individuals at the intersection of law enforcement, mental health, and the justice system through MH118680. More than 1250 people have attended as of 7/1/2022. Topics have included, "Understanding evidence-based treatments for justice-involved individuals with mental illness" (9/15/2021) and "Criminal level system behavioral health evidence-based practices (10/12/2022).
 3. National and state policy advocacy. I am an invited speaker to many policy groups nationally, including at the Maternal Mental Health Leadership Alliance (MMHLA) Prevention Summit and NIMH Partner Groups. I also regularly engage in policy advocacy through meetings and email related to mental health, maternal health, justice involvement, and Medicaid reimbursement. Contributor. I provided information to help frame MI House bills 4283-4285 and Senate Bills 156-158 re: lethal means restriction and suicide.
 4. One of eight founding members of the Executive Board of the Health Flint Coordinating Center (HFRCC; <https://www.hfrcc.org/>), 2016. This organization is a partnership between Flint community members/organizations, Michigan State University, University of Michigan-Ann Arbor, and University of Michigan-Flint. Its goal is to create equitable partnerships and synergies between community and academic institutions conducting research in Flint. Some components include:
 - A Community Ethics Review Board (<https://www.hfrcc.org/ceb/>)
 - A Flint research Project Index (<https://www.hfrcc.org/project-index/>)
 - Open Data Flint (<https://www.hfrcc.org/open-data-flint/>)
 - An annual Research Symposium (<https://www.hfrcc.org/the-2019-hfrcc-research-symposium/>)
 5. COVID. Organized weekly virtual support and grief support groups for the Flint community via the FWSCAN. Provided testimony for a successful Genesee County resolution to declare racism a public health crisis. Organized COVID support groups and mindfulness popup groups for the College of Human Medicine via the "CHM and the vulnerable" workgroup I founded. Provided information on COVID-related mental health and wellness through weekly HFRCC webinars and media venues such as The Conversation and Wisconsin Public Radio.
 6. Organizer and sponsor, Mental Health Library, Genesee County Jail. I led a team that identified the need for and then worked in partnership with jail staff to identify and provide books to begin a mental health library for jail providers and incarcerated people. The library includes manuals and workbooks on mental health evidence-based practices, as well as approachable books about mental health, substance use recovery, healthy relationships, and related topics.
 7. Organizer, Michigan Stepping Up Technical Assistance for Genesee County. I worked with a colleague to get the Center for Behavioral Health and Justice funded through the state of Michigan to provide jails and community mental health centers with technical assistance in reaching national Stepping Up goals to reduce the number of people with mental illness in jails, and then connected Genesee County with these services.
 8. Member, Flint Community Water Narrative group. This is a group of Flint community members and academics who convened to elevate the voices and perspectives of Flint community members in the academic and popular literatures in the wake of the Flint Water Crisis.
 9. Institutional host and co-convenor, Raise the Age: A discussion about 17-year-olds in adult jails and prisons, Michigan State University and Genesee County Health Department, Flint, MI (2017, April).
 10. Sponsor, Critical Incident Training for Correctional Supervisors (February 2018) and then for all (n = 125) Correctional Officers at the Genesee County Jail (2019, February). This training teaches officers how to manage and de-escalate crisis situations with individuals undergoing intense psychological distress or trauma.
 11. University advocacy. In University, College, and Division strategic planning, I advocate for the role of community partners in determining our future. I serve on the Division of Public Health Community

Engaged Workgroup, holding meetings with Flint community members about their vision, wants, and role in the Division's future.

CLINICAL LEADERSHIP

Clinical Accomplishments

- Identified the first evidence based treatment for major depressive disorder in any incarcerated population (R01 MH095230)
- Identified the first evidence based suicide prevention intervention for the 11 million individuals passing through pretrial jail detention each year (U01 MH106660)
- Described phenomenology of intentional and accidental overdoses, as well as how these events are communicated with medical providers (U01 MH106660-S1)
- Trained 98 prenatal clinics serving low-income women (including 600+ providers) in evidence-based postpartum depression prevention (R01 MH114883)
- Developed and evaluated the first treatment for women experiencing major depressive disorder after a perinatal loss (miscarriage, stillbirth, early neonatal death)
- Helped to identify decision-making patterns and effective treatment options for pregnant women with bipolar disorder (R34 MH103570; R34 MH102466)
- Developed and evaluated a treatment linkage intervention for women with alcohol use disorder leaving jail (R01 AA021732)
- Developed and evaluated a treatment for pregnant women with co-occurring substance use and depressive disorders (R34 DA030428)
- Developed and evaluated interventions to reduce HIV risk behaviors and co-occurring substance use and mental health disorders among women leaving prison (R34 MH094188; K23 DA021159)
- Two of my studies were mentioned by name in the FY 2022 Congressional Justification for the National Institute of Mental Health (see https://www.nimh.nih.gov/sites/default/files/documents/about/budget/nimh_fy_2022_cj.pdf, pp. 5-6).
